

Bob Samuelson brings over 15 years of domain, brand protection and digital marketing experience to the Donuts team.

After retiring from a professional volleyball career, which included a bronze medal in the 1992 Olympic games, Bob played an integral role at .tv. Bob subsequently joined Verisign's Digital Brand Management Services group, providing domain portfolio management and brand protection services for some of the world's largest and most respected brands. Bob followed those experiences with key positions at Melbourne IT and Citizen Hawk.

Most recently with the Marketing Cloud division of Adobe Systems, Bob gained invaluable knowledge about the website creation lifecycle and the consumer experience.