

Jon Nevett is a veteran of the domain name industry. He is a founding Board member of the Domain Name Association, the industry's trade association and has served on numerous ICANN task forces, working groups, and panels. He currently serves on ICANN's IANA Stewardship Transition Coordination Group (ICG), the group tasked with steering the move of this function to the global multistakeholder community. Prior to Donuts, he served as President of Domain Dimensions, Senior Vice President at Network Solutions, and Chairman of the Board of NameJet and Central Registry Solutions.

At ICANN, Jon formed and served as the first Chair of the New gTLD Applicant Group (NTAG), advised on how best to protect trademarks with New TLDs on the Implementation Recommendation Team (IRT), the Special Trademark Issue team (STI), and on the International Trademark Association's Internet Committee. Jon was elected Chair of the ICANN Registrar Constituency for three terms and co-chaired the U.S. Council for International Business' Domain Name System Working Group. In 2009, Jon was appointed to the U.S. Department of Commerce's Online Safety and Technology Working Group related to issues of child safety and the Internet.

Jon received his Juris Doctorate from Harvard Law School and his undergraduate degree from Binghamton University
